Description of mouthguards

Below is a brief description of each type of Sportsguard Mouthguard to help you select the most effective type of mouthguard to suit your sporting requirements. Visit www.sportsguard.com.au for further information.

mouthguard for juniors
	Sportsguard Starter Suggested age: Under 9 The Sportsguard Starter is a non laminated mouthguard which consists of one layer of mouthguard material. The thickness of the starter makes it very comfortable for a younger player to get used to wearing a mouthguard. This is your basic type of mouthguard for the beginner playing low impact sports. This mouthguard is available in all colours. A name insert is not available with this type of mouthguard.
	Sportsguard Junior Suggested age: Under 11 – Suitable for children with erupting teeth The Sportsguard Junior is a laminated mouthguard which consists of two layers of material. The laminate gives younger players a mouthguard with added protection. It is suitable for children with erupting teeth. It is available in all colours and includes a name insert. Sportsguard Plus Junior Impact – Exclusive To Sportsguard Suggested age: Under 14 The Sportsguard Plus Junior Impact is the top of the range mouthguard for all junior players. This mouthguard is manufactured with a specific type of material that absorbs approx 30% more impact and is stronger than your standard mouthguard material. It consists of two layers of our high impact material and is suitable for younger players. This mouthguard is available in the colour white only and includes a name insert. mouthguard for seniors
	Sportsguard Senior Laminare Suggested age: 14 and above The Sportsguard Senior laminare mouthguard consists of two layers of material. The thickness of the material differs to the junior mouthguards to increase protection. It is available in all colours and includes a name insert. Sportsguard Senior Plus Impact – Exclusive To Sportsguard Suggested age: 14 and above The Sportsguard Plus Senior Impact is the elite mouthguard. This mouthguard is manufactured with a specific type of material that absorbs Impact by approx 30% more than your standard mouthguard material. It consists of three layers of our high impact material and the unique design provides you with maximum protection and total comfort. This mouthguard is available in the colour white only and includes a name insert. mouthguard for orthodontics
